The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, July 10. 1723.

Stockholm, June 30.

A Solemn Day of Humiliation and Prayers was kept here on the 23th Instant, when the Bishop of Aba preached before their Majesties in the Morning. We were much alarmed at Three a Clock in the Afternoon by the tolling of the great Bells, the usual Signal of a Fire being broke out, which proved to be in the Sudermalm, in a Timber-House, which however was extinguished before it had done any considerable Damage. A great Fire happened last Week at Skoberga, two Leagues distant from this City; it broke out at Midnight, and consumed about 20 Houses, and a good Number of Cattle. The Minister of Stanislaus, who arrived here two or three Weeks ago, has not yet had Audience of the King, nor of the States; he has however paid Visits to some of the Ministers and Senators. It is presumed his Commission is to solicit a Supply of Money for his Master. The Secret Committee of the States has at last thought fit to give to the Czar the Title of Emperour of Russia, and to the Duke of Holstein that of Royal Highness, which has been confirmed by the States, and 'tis thought will be very soon by his Majesty. Count Horn, President of the Council, having been all along the great Support of the Duke of Holstein, tho' hitherto underhand, has now more openly recommended the said Duke's Interest to the States, and his Minister M. Bassewitz has Hopes to succeed in all his Demands.

Vienna, June 26. 'Count de Windischgratz is set out for Prague, for which Place all the Chancery and Military Officers are likewise departed. 'Yesterday the Council of Regency appointed to govern here during his Imperial Majesty's Absence, assembled for the first Time; it consists of the following Members, viz. Count de Harrach President, Count de Paar, Count Khevenhuller, Count de Daun, Count de Welts, Count de Kollonitsch Archbishop of Vienna, Count Wurmbrand, Count Seilern, Baron Ehrenreich, and Councellour Managetta. The Number of Persons who attend the Emperour and Empress on their Journey to Prague, and receive Wages from the Court amounts to 1180. The Acts of the Hungarian States are sent to Prague, and 'tis said their Ratification by the Emperour will shortly be carried to Presbourg. The 24th Instant being the King of Portugal's Birth-Day, the same was celebrated here by the Empress Dowager, who gave a noble Entertainment on that Occasion to Don Emanuel Prince of Portugal. M. Bruining, the States General's Envoy had a Conference some Days ago with the Count de Zinzendorff, who told him, that the Emperour could give no Answer to the Representations made to him concerning the Ostend East India Company, till after his Return from Prague. The Fortifications and Buildings that were demolished at Buda by the great Fire which lately happened there, are repairing as fast as possible. Advices are received here, that the Turks are drawing together a Body of Troops on the River Niester, under the Command of the Seraskier Bashaw. We have just now received the sad News from Lientz in Tyrol, that in the Space of four Hours that whole Town was lately reduced to Ashes, with all the Churches and the Castle, by a Fire that broke out in a Monastery during a violent Storm of Wind, which is very uncommon in those Parts.

Copenhagen, July 3. 'We are now pretty well assured of his Majesty's Intention to stay in Zeeland this Summer, having resolved to drink the Mineral Waters at Roscenbourg. The Repose of the Royal Princess's being again with Child, has filled this City with extraordinary Joy. 'Tis said Orders are actually given to unrig the Danish Men of War, in order to lay them up. His Royal Highness the Prince of Denmark, hath purchased the fine House of the late Count of Reventlau, for the Princess of Culmbeck, his Mother-in-Law.

Pyrmont, July 13. His Majesty continues to take the Waters, which agree with him perfectly well. A great Number of Persons of Distinction resort hither from all Parts, to wait upon His Majesty: Prince William and Prince George of Hesse-Cassel are expected here in a Day or two; and 'tis said the Bishop of Munster will also pay a Visit to his Majesty, before His Return to Hanover. Yesterday in the Evening there was a Ball at the Wells, where His Majesty, the Prince and Princesses of Waldeck, and the Prince and Princess of Swartzbourg were present.

Hague, July 13. The States of Holland have lately disposed of most of their vacant Military Employments to Officers on half Pay, the better to ease the Government of its Expence. The Count de Marquetti, Baron Spar, and other Foreign Ministers, are lately arrived here from Great Britain, in order to proceed to Hanover.
